Brentano Calls on Fashion for Residential Textiles

Design Director Iris Wang draws inspiration from the sleek, stylish life of the city

Wheeling, IL. (October 2016) — For the 18 new patterns in the fall 2016 Cityscape collection, Design Director Iris Wang was inspired by all aspects across the urban landscape; including the design trends born in the fashion district. In a romantic twist on the fashion industry, the collection releases sophisticated, tailored textiles designed for the comfortable home or the well-dressed office.

With a beautiful hand and chic bouclé texture, Selfridge adds luxury to Cityscape's geometric, contemporary aesthetic. Reminiscent of thick wool, Selfridge presents seven timeless neutrals that lend elegance and poise to any interior. Equally as graceful, Essanay – in a perfect blend of cotton, linen, viscose and wool – evokes a vintage style in a herringbone weave with vibrant flecks of color. Offered in a masculine pallet of rich neutrals with a deep teal and regal red, Essanay's traditional styling deserves applause.
